CAUS COMMUNITY NARRATIVES ✨ CALL FOR PARTICIPATION

SUBMIT YOUR ENTRY BY MONDAY, JANUARY 30

WHAT
Your story is unique! And we want to highlight the diverse body of people in our CAUS community! This photo-narrative project is a diversity awareness initiative developed by the CAUS Diversity Committee. The project goal is to exhibit 25 large-size photographs of individuals who best represent the diverse population in our college. Participants chosen by members of the CAUS Diversity Committee will tell a brief personal narrative on the white photo background surrounding their photograph. An example may be found on the Google Forms link below.

This is YOUR STORY to tell! We want to see you, your culture, your identity. So wear traditional apparel from your nation! Bring a couple of friends who add to your story! Bring along that special someone who loves you for just being you!

WHO MAY PARTICIPATE
Any level of student, faculty, or staff within the CAUS community may enter by completing the Google form accessed through this link: https://goo.gl/forms/yLEaFZCudTwTrxx82

HOW DO I ENTER
Complete the information requested on the Google form through the above link. This includes your name, your affiliation with CAUS, and a brief essay (no more than 300 words) that responds to the following question:

Based on your lived experiences, what does diversity mean in your life?

WHEN
Photo sessions will be scheduled in mid-winter 2017. An on-campus exhibit is scheduled for early Fall 2017.

RESPONSE DEADLINE
All entries must be received by end of day, Monday, January 30.
