MISSION

Founded in 1964, the mission of the College of Architecture and Urban Studies is to understand, through acts of creation, design, construction, and analysis, the forces that give meaning and value to the built environments that shape our lives.

VISION

CAUS is an education and research leader in designing human-centered solutions to global challenges. Through interdisciplinary exploration, industry collaboration, community outreach, research, scholarship, and the graduates we produce, CAUS answers the call for smart, sustainable design, construction, and policy.

VALUES

CAUS advances Virginia Tech's motto, Ut Prosim (That I May Serve), and vision, Beyond Boundaries, through its research, scholarship, outreach, and graduates. Our culture is based on core values of creative risk-taking, progress, equity, sustainability, diversity, collaboration, service, and global citizenship.
